

Am I eligible to self-drive a minibus? A simple guide

Start here: Do you want to drive a minibus as an unpaid volunteer, or as a paid worker where driving is not a compulsory or separately-paid part of your job?

Yes

Are you over 21 and have you held a full UK /EU car license for 2 or more years?

Yes

Do you have a valid MiDAS Certificate for a manual minibus?

Yes

You are eligible to drive a minibus. Contact us to book now

No

Sorry, please wait until you qualify, or take a DSA-approved test. Contact us for more details.

No

Please contact us to book your MiDAS training. As a safety standard, all our minibus drivers are required to obtain Minibus Driver Awareness Scheme certification

No: It will be a compulsory part of my paid employment with a non-profit group or organisation.

Did you pass your car test in the UK prior to 1 Jan 1997?

Yes

Is your employer a not-for-profit, charity or social enterprise?

Yes

Do you have a valid MiDAS Certificate for a manual minibus?

Yes

You are eligible to drive a minibus. Contact us to book now

No

Have you since passed a manual PCV test and gained your MiDAS certificate?

No

Sorry, you cannot drive a minibus without first passing a DSA approved test. Contact our training department for further details.

No

Please contact us to book your MiDAS training. As a safety standard, all our minibus drivers are required to obtain Minibus Driver Awareness Scheme certification

Yes

You are eligible to drive a minibus. Contact us to book now

Any questions?
If so, please do not hesitate to call our friendly staff on:
020 7275 2414